ABOUT WEST TORONTO ARTISTS

West Toronto Artists is a group of artists dedicated to sharing their art to Toronto's west end and beyond. Formally known as the Art Tour Collective, the group was first brought together in 1997 when artist John Y. Lynch held a small networking event for local artists at a neighbourhood bar on Bloor Street. Over time, this gathering became a thriving artistic community, connecting artists together by hosting studio tours and juried art exhibitions.

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

This art exhibition features the work of twenty-three of the West Toronto Artists. Each artist showcases a trio of artwork depicting their own interpretation of how colour inspires and influences their artistic expression, echoing the sentiments of Georgia O'Keeffe who once said, "I found I could say things with colors and shapes that I could not say any other way...".

ABOUT THE GALLERY

The gallery opened in May 1976, designed to showcase local artists and animate the newly renovated Etobicoke Civic Centre. Over its history, the gallery has presented more than 400 exhibitions. While Etobicoke arts groups have always been a mainstay, the gallery has brought the world of art to the local community, with national and international shows featuring works by artists from around the globe, including Japan, China, Hungary and Korea.

The volunteer Gallery Committee has always played a key part in the programming and operations of the gallery. Today, the gallery is operated by the City of Toronto, with ongoing direction and assistance from the Gallery Committee.

For more information on current or upcoming exhibitions, please contact the gallery staff at 416-394-8628 or eccartgallery@toronto.ca.
